Consul General Xu Jie in Brisbane Calls on Queensland Chief Justice Catherine Holmes

2017-09-06 12:01

On August 29, 2017, Consul General Xu Jie in Brisbane paid a visit to Queensland Chief Justice Catherine Holmes to exchange views on China-Australia, China-Queensland relations and further promotion of judicial exchanges and cooperation between the two sides.

Consul General Xu said that in recent years, China-Australia and China-Queensland relations have developed rapidly, and exchanges and cooperation in various fields have been fruitful. Exchanges and cooperation in the judicial field between China and Kunming have maintained a good momentum. The Consulate General is willing to work with the Kunzhou Court to continue to promote the continuous development of relevant exchanges and cooperation. Consul General Xu also briefed Chief Justice Holmes on the implementation of China's comprehensive rule of law and the important achievements it has achieved.

Chief Justice Holmes welcomed Consul General Xu to Queensland, and thanked him for introducing China's comprehensive implementation of the rule of law, and introduced Queensland's judicial system and related practices. She said that the Queensland Supreme Court cherishes the good working relationship with the Consulate-General, and the Chinese in Kunzhou abide by the law. More and more young Chinese learn law and engage in related businesses. contacts.

recommend to friends: E-mail Full Text
Sure Print Print
Transcript

related news:

- Consul General Xu Jie in Brisbane attended the "Family Love China • Heart to Australia" Charity Performance for Overseas Chinese (2018-11-01)
- Consul General Xu Jie in Brisbane attended the 2nd Australia-China International Photography Festival Awards Ceremony and Outstanding Works Exhibition (2018-09-17)
- Consul General Xu Jie in Brisbane was invited to attend the luncheon held by Queensland Innovation and Tourism Industry Development Minister Kate Jones (2018-09-12)

- Consul General Xu Jie met with University of Queensland Vice-Chancellor Professor Peter Hoy (2018-09-11)
- Consulate General in Brisbane Holds 2018 Teacher's Day Condolences Event (2018-09-07)
- Consul General Xu Jie in Brisbane was invited to attend the Royal Queensland Exhibition (2018-08-16)
- The Consulate General in Brisbane held the 2018 China-Australia Youth Exchange Activity with Young Diplomats of the Consulate General (2018-07-06)
- The Final Prize Winner of the First "When a Koala Meets a Panda" China-Australia Friendship Micro-Video Contest Successfully concluded a cultural trip to Northeast China (2018-06-14)

Copyright Consulate General of the People's Republic of China in Brisbane